Gretchen and Nina,

Attached are the slides that we will use as a guide for our discussion tomorrow. The slides are a combination of a couple of different presentation, some that I have done myself, although a significant contribution comes from a presentation put together by one of my colleagues. However, we are not at all wedded to the slides—if there is any issue that you would like to explore, we can focus on that. Please keep in mind, however, that I do need to keep this discussion to one hour as I have a call at 3:15 EDT for a fairly sensitive regional matter that I'm handling, so I can't be late.

Will you each be in your respective offices? I will assume that I will call you at your office numbers unless you tell me otherwise. I'm looking forward to talking to you tomorrow. Thanks, Dan
