Hey Adam.
Thanks for the info. I'll put together a Spot Report using your last two updates. Got some google hits for media coverage and will include those too.

FYI - Laura Casillas will be taking over watch officer duty at 9am tomorrow and will follow up with you on further updates.

OSC Fisher assessed waterways in the area and verified that they do not appear to have been impacted. An operations briefing is scheduled for 1800 to discuss ongoing operations throughout the evening. The spill is receiving media attention from national and international news sources.
