Rich,
Thanks for the update. Again, condolences on your Dad's situation.

I received a message from Lt Edwards (see screen shot below), and wasn't sure if I should assign LST to someone else in your absence or just put it on hold. I don't think it would hurt to push things back a week or so if we needed to, to avoid reassigning it. But I also don't want it to be a distraction for you with your current family issues. Your family comes first. Let me know if you want me to reassign.
Thanks,
Chris.

Subject: Schedule

Things here in Dallas seem to be stabilizing. Not great, but stabilizing. My father's prognosis is still unclear. But if it remain somewhat stable for now, then I'll return to Portland on Thursday. If by the end of the day my father's condition worsens, then I'll stay. He has several things, including COPD, pneumonia, and vascular disease, and some stuff going on that even the doctors aren't sure of. We don't expect he'll be with us very much longer, so am also in the middle of setting up funeral arrangements, working with Medicaid to get bills paid, etc. We'll see how it goes. I'll have a better feel for my schedule by the end of the day today and will let you know my schedule. Good lesson here...not a good thing to smoke 3 packs of Camel cigarettes for 50 years. Not a great outcome.

Today I'll have probably have a some time to adress some items like the next LST meeting. Would like to keep that rolling forward.
