Attached are staff-level CRFLO comments. To highlight a few:

Ex. 5 - Deliberative/Attorney-Client

Separate from the Q/A doc, don't we still need talking points (i.e., the remarks you'll be making before any questions are asked)?

Sorry this is delayed. Attached are the Q/A's from the EJA meeting with a few more added to give more specifics about the papers.

By "you" are you referring to me or Helena? I don't mind taking the lead if that's helpful.

I assume you'll have to lead on the presentation/discussion, but if specific questions about the adversity paper come up, I'm happy to answer them.

I think we just need to call into the # that Running Grass provides.

Please send us the TPs from before to see if we need to update.

I've reserved the room and will go in early to set up the phone. Do I need to do anything else?

We may do it in the conference room (Jerett can you set this up).

Yes to joining.

The original email from Running Grass to Carlos said that the call is from 10-11am. I assume that's PDT not EDT, right?

Are you guys going to do the call from HWA's office? If so, can I join you?

I believe so. Can you resend what I sent? Let myself and CRFLO make sure what is there has not changed.

I've been requested to join the state EJ coordinators meeting next Tues. I don't think I have anything scheduled if it's alright with you.
