Hi Jennifer,

After a few attempts I was able to create a file that wanted to open. I left the errored one in the folder for now, but included another called "Resaved version" which will hopefully download/open for you.

If it is still breaking, I will try re-creating the document (there were only a couple phone numbers marked so this won't take long).

Oops! I likely missed you for the day, Marie, but I cannot open the file at the link below. I've tried a few times, and a window pops up saying that it's damaged. It probably had not completely transferred into the folder. It's a large file.

Hi Marie-

This is to confirm that the PA report in the G:\ is the responsive record for the subject FOIA.
I have reviewed the record and believe it is releasable.

Thank you.
