Hello,

I just wanted to follow up and determine the status of our case. I have been away from my office on personal business since our last conversation and am trying to catch up. The last time we spoke I believe we were waiting on a review of a response letter and wanted to determine what the schedule for that review might be.

I appreciate your help in this matter.

Dennis

Please contact me as soon as possible and we can schedule a time that is convenient for you. I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you!
