Hi Rob-
We did not record this information, but there are a few people around here who might have information on this topic. Matt Goode (cc'd here) might have some data on microsites or know someone else who has been looking at this issue. Brian

P.S. Matt- Rob is reviewing data for the Rosemont project.

Hey Brian,

Excellent paper. I am curious whether you recorded microhabitat data for your surveys? I am interested in species that were recorded wit in washes and adjacent xeroriparian zones.

Best,

Rob

Hi Brian,

Hope all is well. Do you have a pdf of your 2010 publication on the herptofauna of the Rincon Mountains that you could share?

Thanks much!

Rob
