Terrific. I am excited about this. I will try to call tomorrow early.
How about 10:30AM?

Regards,

Paul

Subject: Oil on sea bottom discussion

Hi Paul,

Tried to call to talk. We have discussed this on the Steering Committee and we are in favor of you including the discussion topic on oil on the sea bottom. Our understanding is that this will involve participation by Mandy Joye and an unnamed contractor working with BP's data. Our expectation is that these scientists will have relevant data to share with the audience. Words will need to be supported with data. Bill or I will be happy to assist you in contacting these individuals if you need such support. You can also use the invitation that I sent you as the basis for reaching out to these folks. Just let us know.

Please give me a call when you get a chance. I do want to speak with you some more on this and your panel. Tomorrow is very open for me until 4:00 pm Central time zone (I'm flying home then).

Thanks for your suggestion of this topic!
Marc
