Here is a clean copy. And I just got word that you are good to file. Please give this a final read just to be sure there are no typos etc., but I think you are clear to file. Thanks, Dan

Sure. Please send me what you want filed by 5:00. That way I will be sure I have the final; there are earlier versions in my directory and I don't want to get them confused. I think it will be safe to assume by then that there are no more comments coming!!!
