Cathy,
First, great trip, thanks, 21 interviews in four villages in four days—must be a record for this kind of interviewing, actually five villages if you count that several were originally from Igiagik
Did you hear from Koliganok, the window is narrowing (slider window to avoid a mixed metaphor).

These are the possibilities:
The contact in Dillingham is going to be gone over labor day as will probably be the ADF&G guy in Dillingham, Kreig, so I suggest we do Dillingham, Levelok and Igiagik after the October 1 draft deadline, and just visit Ekwok/Kloiganok. Plus we need to have time to write and transcribe.

September 2 to 5

September 2, fly to Koliganok Friday, interviews Saturday, overnight again and Orthodox church on Sunday, Sept 4

September 4 afternoon, fly to Ekwok, interviews Monday (labor day)

September 6, Tuesday, fly to Kenai

August 26 to 29, Leave Friday, return Monday

Fly to Dillingham Friday, interviews in afternoon

Fly to Ekowk Saturday, interviews, overnight in Ekwok, church in Ekwok

Fly to koliganok Sunday, interviews Sunday afternoon and Monday morning

Fly to Kenai Monday

OR I stay on in Koliganok a day or so, and you return to Homer to teach on Tuesday

OR the above minus Dillingham

Alan

PS I have the wrong cell number for you, could you resend it?
