Hi Lea,

Here's a cleaner version of what you sent yesterday. (most of the comment bubbles are cleared out, except for stuff that might need further work or discussion, but all the track changes still showing)

I plan to clean this up a bit more and send it to Colleen and Ann (and maybe Debbie) for review by noon (pacific) today. If you're not able to finish by then, no worries, I can just incorporate your further refinements into tomorrow's draft.

Would you mind excerpting the stuff you revise (assuming they are discrete chunks and not polishing numerous pages throughout!) – that would make it easier for me to just cut and paste (or at least figure out where you made edits).

Thanks!
Anita

And thinking that some of the arguments could be polished a bit more. Have you made edits to what I sent yesterday? If so, I can work from that.
