DPM 672
Corrosion Preventive, Petrolatum

HOUGHTON

April 21, 1977

Douglass Aircraft Company
3855 Lakewood Blvd.
Long Beach, Ca. 90846

Attention: Mr. M. J. Veneroso
Materials Handling &
Packaging Engineering

Gentlemen:

Your letter of March 30, 1977, to our Santa Ana plant has been forwarded to the writer with the request to furnish you with the information you desire.

Two of these products, Hocut 237 and Cosmoline 1062 are not regulated. We classify them as the following for shipping:

342	Hocut 237	-	Metal Cutting Compound
672	Cosmoline 1062	-	Petroleum Lubricating Oil NOI or Grease

Lubricant 949 is not our product.

I have listed below the proper shipping classification for the other products.

		Proper Shipping Name	Hazard
1221	Cosmoline 1091	Combustible Liquid NOI	Combustible Liquid
665	Cosmoline 1102	Combustible Liquid NOI	Combustible Liquid
673	Cosmoline 1104	Combustible Liquid NOI	Combustible Liquid

For Air - Article No. 1939
Flash Point - 105°F for all three
Pensky Martin Closed Cup

BOE-C6-0209321

DPM 950-8

Perliton 45 - Cyanide or Cyanide Mixtures Dry Poison B

For Air - Article No. 544
Requires Poison Label

I have also enclosed our standard Material Safety Data Sheets for all of these products.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact the writer.

Sincerely,

E. F. Houghton & Company

Frank J. Roth

Frank J. Roth
Product Safety Manager

FJR/atd
Attachments