Sorry I was on the phone with other people, and then my voice was worn out. Since Bradley is the lead, and he asked Dan & others to be a technical advisor to Greenaction. I am wondering if I should go through him 1st.

I tried to call you three times. Before sending this out, can you call Mr. Hirsch and see if the 12th works for him? If Bradley see it works for the majority, he may cave. You also can fill in Mr. Hirsch availability before sending the doodle out to the Navy again. Also, add Derek input for all to see.

Dear Jackie,

I just left you a voicemail. Bradley will probably ask you about this tomorrow, so I want to get this out before then. Here's a draft to consider sending to Bradley, Marie, Dan, Derek, Bill (Navy PAO)

I'm sorry the Navy computers are having trouble viewing the poll. To follow up on the screenshots I sent you last Friday and yesterday, I have taken another screen shot from this morning and cut & pasted it into this email below. Can you view this? The conclusion is that out of 13 times, none of them work for everyone, even without hearing from the Navy and Dan Hirsch. I can make a list of later times and send out a revised poll.

(By the way, in case you didn't know, Nina is from DTSC, and Rob Terry is EPA Region 9's Health Physicist)
