Hello Michele,

Thank you so much for your quick response. I was calling to inquire about DOGGR's aquifer exemption applications.

EPA set a deadline for DOGGR to submit applications for exemptions from the SDWA for certain categories of aquifers by July 15, 2015. These are for non-exempt, non-hydrocarbon bearing aquifers that have been subjected to injection activity and contain water with less than 3,000 mg/L TDS.

I was hoping to find out whether DOGGR had submitted any such applications. And if so, is there a way for the public to access these documents? When would they become available?

Feel free to give me a call if you want to discuss further.

Thanks in advance for your help,

Hollin
