Issue paper for WA and FL
WY Rec UAA OW Mgmt 3_28_17_final.docx

Attached are the emails and below are the blurbs we previously sent. I'm on a call with Jenn and VA, but let me know if you need re-writes and I can do after.

FL and WA:

EPA received two lawsuits alleging that the Agency unreasonably delayed responding to petitions filed under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), asking EPA to establish new water quality standards (WQS) via federal rulemaking in Florida and Washington. We would like Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

WY UAA:
Mike:

Here is a short summary for you to share with the new senior management team on our upcoming action in Wyoming regarding revisions to the State's recreational uses (i.e., changing from primary to secondary contact recreation due to low flow). The use change was supported by a categorical use attainability analysis that included GIS information and field surveys. EPA's action will approve >99% of the use changes, and disapprove ten, small streams based on public comments from outdoor recreators (hikers, hunters, etc.) that demonstrated primary contact recreation was an attainable use. EPA is not taking action on waters in Indian country.

The Region is currently planning to take its action by mid-April. Would you like use to add a note about this action to the OW Weekly Report and/or would you prefer to pass up this information?

Both of those, FL HHC, FYI on Charleston copper SSC dismiss filing, probably not worth it on the WA AL multicolored settlement though R10 is not convinced of that.

WY UAAs? WA petition response? I think that's the WA one we wanted to add.. What do we have that is 3 weeks out?

Thanks,

Sara
