Subject: U.S. EPA Regional Administrator Meeting in Yerington with Local Agricultural Interests, Local Government Officials, Community Members and Tribal Officials Regarding Proposed Listing of the Anaconda Mine on National Priorities List

Dear Colleagues,

I wanted to let your offices know that tomorrow, Tuesday, March 2, 2016, Jared Blumenfeld, the Regional Administrator of U.S. EPA Region 9, will be in Yerington, Nevada to discuss the community's concerns associated with proposing the Anaconda Mine for the National Priorities List. The Regional Administrator will meet with local agriculture interests, local government officials and community members. He will also meet with the Yerington Paiute and Walker River Paiute Tribes. The Regional Administrator is following through on his commitment to meet with the community, as noted in his February 8, 2016 letter to Governor Sandoval regarding Anaconda Mine.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need any additional information.

Regards,

Brent Maier
