Agenda
Conference Call with Federal Agencies, States, and Other Experts on Use of Methylene Chloride in Bathtub Refinishing
Conference Line: Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy
July 10th @ 2:00 pm Eastern

Purpose: Share latest information on recent fatality in TN from methylene chloride in bathtub refinishing, update from all parties on regulatory or other activities on methylene chloride, brainstorm on efforts that could mitigate future fatalities, and agree on next steps.

1. Introductions (5 minutes)
   All

2. Purpose of call (5 minutes)
   Maria Doa, Director, Chemical Control Division, EPA's Office of Pollution Prevention and Toxics

3. Update from OSHA and Tennessee OSHA on Recent Fatality (10 minutes)
   Steve Hawkins, TOSHA Administrator
   Kathleen Fagan, Medical Officer, OSHA
   Bob Harrison, California Department of Public Health

4. Update from EPA on Proposed Regulations on Methylene Chloride (5 minutes)
   Maria Doa, EPA

5. Update from CPSC on Petition on Acute Hazard Labeling (5 minutes)
   Michael Babich, Director, Division of Toxicology and Risk Assessment, CPSC

6. Update from OSHA on Hazard Communication Activities (5 minutes)
   Kathleen Fagan, OSHA

7. Update from California—Safer Consumer Products Regulations (5 minutes)
   Meredith Williams, Deputy Director, Department of Toxic Substances Control's Safer Products and Workplaces Program

8. Update on Consensus Based Labeling Project (5 minutes)
   Ken Rosenman, Professor, Michigan State University

9. Brainstorm on Possible Next Steps to Address Future Fatalities (10 minutes)
   All

10. Next Steps (5 minutes)
    All