Upcoming National Academies Workshop: "Review of Advances Made to the IRIS Process"

The National Academy of Sciences (NAS) will be holding a public workshop to review advances made to the IRIS process on February 1st and 2nd at The National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine in Washington D.C. During the workshop, EPA will present on implemented and ongoing changes in the IRIS Program. The NAS committee will evaluate the changes that have been made in response to previous NAS reports. Stakeholder input is welcome – public comment slots are available at the workshop; availability is based on a first come, first served basis. Registration, the workshop agenda, and more general information can be found at https://www.eventbrite.com/e/review-of-advances-made-to-the-iris-process-a-workshop-tickets-40108723271. Questions or comments should be directed to the NAS at best@nas.edu.
