Jonathan/Jim –

I just spoke to David and he would like Excelsior to take priority right now. Please work on this first and then Alon. I expect the Alon deliverable to be due ~4/28?? Please confirm.

I understand that Jim thinks it will take about 30 hours for the Excelsior review and then a handful of hours for Cadmus QA. Can we readjust the deliverable date from COB 4/24 to COB 4/18 or 4/19?

We need to know if the new material addresses our concerns or if there are any red flags or outstanding items/clarifications that we need to discuss with Excelsior on the next conf call which is scheduled for Thursday, 4/27. We would like Jim to be on that call. Will send you call info when I have it.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks. Kate

Thank you, Nancy.

Jim is now reading through the 4 attachments/148 pages of Excelsior responses in order to estimate the LOE hours required to complete the review, and to resume regular calls.

We have used all the existing LOE in the Excelsior TDM to complete the prior review of the last round of their responses.

We'll be back in touch soon with our estimate.

Thank you,

Jonathan

Hi Jim,

Please find attached request letter. I consulted with Kate. She thought the existing TDM covers the review for this response. She's in training today but please discuss updating LOE and timing with her. Excelsior wants to resume conference calls every two weeks starting April 13, 10 am.

Thanks, Nancy

Hi Nancy,

Will the TDM be updated for reviewing these responses?

Thanks,

Jim
