Let's change it to some day next week.
I will be driving to San Francisco today for tomorrow's meeting.
Maybe we can have a sidebar conversation tomorrow, look at our calendars and determine a day/time.

Thanks,
Jeryl

Subject: Tomorrows routine call

Guys. I've been at the Yerington site this week and flying home tomorrow morning. However, based on the flight delay trends I'm experiencing there is a good likelihood I will be in the air and unable to call into our routine call tomorrow. Any chance we can bump it to the afternoon? Or some other mutually convenient day in the near future?
Thanks
Jack
