The conference call is still on for today. It is to discuss dates, set up a timeline and discuss reviews. You do need to be on this call.

Hi Danelle,

are you having the conference call today or was it postponed? If it is taking place I can probably call in the first 30 minutes. Please let me know, thanks. Will you be discussing the fac sheet and slides again then?

Rosemarie
PS I will be in my office after that and will send you the abs.
