Dear Mr. Oropallo,

Thank you for the update on the status of obtaining the Club's signature on the Order and for the suggested newspaper publication. Ed Guster, my program client and Case Manager for the Lansing matter is handling the public notice responsibilities with our Public Affairs Division. Since you copied Mr. Guster on this email, he will follow up on your suggestion with regard to the Lansing Ledger.

I look forward to receipt of the signed Order via overnight mail from you. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Melva J. Hayden

Good Morning Ms. Hayden,

We will arrange for the signature today.

Also, I suggest the Lansing Ledger for the newspaper. It is published every Wednesday. http://www.gaebler.com/Lansing+Ledger-NY-Newspaper-Advertising-Costs++12040

Thank you.

Dear Mr. Oropallo, et al

This is a courtesy email communication to advise you and Mr. Paul that EPA completed its internal concurrence on the Order today. This afternoon, two (2) copies of the Order have been mailed to you at your office address via overnight mail.

After you've had Mr. Scott Hicks, the Club's V.P., sign both copies of the Order, please return them to me at my EPA office address via overnight mail. This will enable EPA to expedite the start of the public notice and comment period.

Your and the Club's cooperation throughout this process is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Melva J. Hayden
