Are you going to be in on Monday or otherwise available to discuss. I have made most all of your changes. They were good and appropriate. But I do have a few questions.

Hope you had a good turkey day and gobbled lots.

Yo. Attached below is the rough draft of the Approval Memorandum. I have contacted TechLaw to produce a map, so one is not ready yet. I appreciate your time and help on this and know you're swamped, so take a look just whenever its convenient. I expect much red on your reply, but that is perfectly fine. I've used both Avery Landing and Josephine Mill as examples - much of the language and style was borrowed from these.

Thanks again. I foresee a rather large martini in your near future.....
