My name is Brandon Cranford with the Alabama Department of Environmental Management. We've spoken before concerning this regulation and you have been extremely helpful. I have a question regarding a proposed stay on the fugitive emissions monitoring specified in 40 CFR §60.5397a. I have seen conflicting stories concerning whether the stay is actually in place or not. I remember a Federal Register proposing a two year stay, but have seen news articles saying there is not a stay. Can you clarify this for me?
