See 3-19-19 letter with sampling letters attached. Bob, any thoughts? Larry, there was a TSCA PCB matter where R5v assisted R10. Now sampling results indicate dioxin and furans.

R10 supposedly wants R5 to continue to take this on – and there is a call at 2 pm today with the R10 enforcement division director, Tim Hamlin.

We have been requested by Region 10 to get involved with this school again. However, it's all about dioxins and furans, (which the author believes stem from the ballast resistors) which is not covered by TSCA. I think Region 10 will need to

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Nevertheless, there will be a 2 pm call with R10 today. Could you read the document and let me know what you think should be done?

Do not reach out to anyone in Region 10 or anyone else on this matter until Mike and Tinka have decided what they want to do about this.

Hello Lisa-
The Snohomish Health District visited the school today and collected photos (attached).
Some of the photos show PCB waste in storage in the school's transportation shed. Devlin Piplic told the Snohomish Health District inspector that these were the old PCB Fluorescent Light Ballasts.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I asked Amanda if she thought that the Snohomish Health District would recommend air testing to the school. She said that since the letter from the plaintiffs (attached) was not addressed to SHD, but rather to EPA, WA DOH and WA Ecology they are waiting to see what the addressees tell the school to do first.

I think Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I was also wondering if we need to have a written response to this letter? It was addressed to the RA as well as myself, and a woman named Tracy Enger of the indoor environments program at HQ.

Thank you,
