Subject: Administrator Andrew Wheeler to Address EPA Employees

<!--[if !vml]--><!--[endif]-->

Colleagues,

I'm deeply honored that President Trump nominated me, and the Senate confirmed me, to serve the American public as the Administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. It is a privilege to work alongside each of you to fulfill our mission to protect public health and the environment. I'm proud of what we have already accomplished together, including issuing the Agency's first-ever PFAS Action Plan, providing greater regulatory certainty to the American public, and making significant progress cleaning up contaminated sites around the country.

On Thursday, March 14, at 1:00 p.m. (EDT) in the Map Room, I will address all EPA employees to celebrate the progress we have made and discuss how we can continue to improve the core functions of the Agency. I invite you to join in person or watch on the livestream. Details for each viewing option are included below.

I appreciate the work you do for the Agency and the American people, and I look forward to continuing our work together to protect human health and the environment.

Sincerely,

Administrator Andrew Wheeler
