Subject: Copy of George Krat's 1995 Central Wisconsin Groundwater Center Study

Hi Karen,

May you please obtain a copy of this study (I am copying this from a document):

"WHEREAS additional testing was previously performed by George Kraft in a study published in 1995 by Central Wisconsin Groundwater Center titled Port Edwards Groundwater Priority Watershed indicating there is a legacy of agricultural practices in an agricultural corridor in Juneau County and southern Wood County west of the Wisconsin River."

Thank you,
Jenny
