Meeting Between California Regional Water Quality Control Board, USEPA and Air Force Regarding Former George AFB Cleanup Sites

March 3, 2016
10:00 AM to 1:00 PM

California EPA Headquarters Building
Training Room 1 East, ground level - 1st Floor
1001 I Street
(between 10th and 11th on I Street)
Sacramento, CA 95814

Conference Call Information:
Conference Call Number: 888-606-5953, Participant Passcode: 39689

Meeting Purpose: Discuss remedial strategies and next steps to hasten investigation and cleanup to restore groundwater beneficial uses in a more reasonable timeframe than is projected using only Monitored Natural Attenuation

1. Introductions and agenda review - All

2. Considerations for revised approach, including future actions the Air Force could take to address data gaps, hot spot treatment, and plume control

    a. Solvents (OU 1) – Linda Stone
    b. Petroleum – Bulk Fuel Plume (Site ST067b) – Linda Stone
    c. Petroleum – Flightline Plume (Site SS030) – Todd Battey
    d. Pesticides – Dieldrin Plume (Site OT071)- Todd Battey

3. Site Histories – Air Force and All

4. Path forward for each site – All

5. Next step, priorities, timing, and constraints - All

6. Meeting action items/recap/next meeting – All

Parking and Building Check In Information:

The closest parking garage to the CalEPA Building is City Hall Garage which on I Street (between 10th and 11th Streets), directly across the street from the building entrance. This garage charges a maximum of $18.00/day. There are other privately owned parking lots and 2 hour meter parking available in the surrounding streets, which may require moving your. Below is link to the City parking services website which shows nearby city parking locations and costs: [HYPERLINK "https://www.cityofsacramento.org/Public-Works/Parking-Services"]

The California Environmental Protection Agency Building is a secure building. Visitors must check-in at the guard station as they enter the building. Visitors must sign in and receive a temporary badge and must sign out as they leave the building. Please plan to check in and receive a Visitors Badge prior to going to the meeting room.