Recent Navy Presentations

Navy Provides Update on Parcel E-2 at September Community Meeting

On Wednesday, September 6, 2017, the Navy hosted a community meeting open house from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Almost 20 community members met with Navy and regulatory agency members at the open house, allowing open two-way communication for community members to ask questions and receive information about the environmental cleanup at Parcel E-2. Five posters were staffed with subject matter experts, and a rolling presentation on the topic ran throughout the meeting.

Meeting materials are available on the meeting material page of the Navy's website at www.bracpmo.navy.mil/hpns. To receive meeting material by email or to ask questions about this event, send an email to info@sfhpns.com or call the HPNS Info Line at (415) 295-4742.

Navy Presents Update on Ongoing Radiological Data Review to HPS CAC

The Navy was invited by the Hunters Point Shipyard Citizen's Advisory Committee (HPS CAC) to present an update on the ongoing radiological data evaluation at HPNS at the HPS CAC's regular meeting on Monday, September 11, 2017 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Following the presentation, the Navy listened to community member comments and concerns, and answered questions in a public meeting format. The meeting was well-attended by more than 35 community members, HPS CAC Board members and staff, Navy and regulatory agency members.

Dr. Kathryn Higley, the Navy's Radiological Community Technical Advisor, was present and answered several questions posed by the attendees. In addition, Mr. James Bryant, a local community advocate, was introduced by the Navy as the newest member to the Navy's outreach team. James will serve as the Navy's Radiological Community Liaison, providing additional access for community members to share questions and concerns, as well as receive information on the Navy's ongoing radiological evaluation. For more information on both liaison's roles and availability, please see the Radiological Program Update section of this newsletter.

Navy presentation materials and the current radiological evaluation update fact sheet are available on the Radiological Cleanup Pages of the Navy's website at www.bracpmo.navy.mil/hpnsrc.

Radiological Program Update

Radiological Data Evaluation Fact Sheet #2

The Navy has prepared an update fact sheet describing the extensive radiological data reviwe that is currently underway at HPNS. This evaluation is the result of falsified data provided by one Navy contractor in 2012, who is no longer working on HPNS. The current update fact sheet provides background on the issue, the extent of the data review and analysis, and upcoming next steps in the process. In addition, information on how the Navy is protecting the public during the cleanup process is provided. The Radiological Data Review Update #2 fact sheet may be found on the Radiological Cleanup Pages of the Navy's website at www.bracpmo.navy.mil/hpnsrc.

To receive a copy of this fact sheet by email, please send a request to info@sfhpns.com or leave a message on the HPNS Info Line at (415) 295-4742. Earlier documents and other program information may be found using the resources described in the Other Information section at the end of this newsletter.

Navy Presentation on Radiological Review Available on Navy Website

Please visit the Navy's website at www.bracpmo.navy.mil/hpnsrc to view the Navy's presentation to attendees at the HPS CAC meeting on September 11th. For additional questions or to share additional concerns, send an email to info@sfhpns.com or leave a message on the HPNS Info Line at (415) 295-4742.

Ask an Expert Session Held in September

In her role as a Radiological Community Technical Advisor for the greater Hunters Point community, Dr. Higley was available to meet with community members on September 11th to answer questions and share information about radiological health and safety.

Ask an Expert at Health Fair on October 28th

Dr. Higley will be available to answer your radiological health and safety questions at the Health and Harvest Fair on Saturday, October 28th. To learn more, see the Upcoming Events and Information section of this newsletter.

If you are unable to meet with her in person, Dr. Higley welcomes your questions by phone at (541) 737-7063 or by email at Kathryn.Higley@oregonstate.edu. Look for announcements with upcoming dates and times to meet with Dr. Higley in the Bayview Hunters Point community!
