Dear Grant and Mohsen,

Thank you for accepting the invitation from Lily Lee on my staff to talk at 3 pm today, in preparation for several upcoming meetings. For the sake of my own organization, I asked her to summarize some milestone dates and activities looking ahead. I hope this is helpful. In addition, I attach a draft for our discussion tomorrow showing summary recommendations for technical evaluation and community involvement my staff has prepared after extensive consultation with your staff. If we can make it joint recommendations, that would fine. Bu more importantly, let's make sure we all agree.

I look forward to talking with you at 3 pm.
