Hi Keith, yes, I came across that article as well. Nothing new in terms of evidence, mostly just re-reporting of the LA Times article plus an update about how Scripps is going out there again to do more sampling and characterization.

Best,
Michael

Another article on this. I'm working on this and hopefully will have a response on Thursday.

Thanks Keith!

There is not a SSID for this (at least yet).

And yes, bet to communicate with Andrew and cc Loren and me.
Thank you
John

Thanks John,

I'm on it. Got three (3) emails from you including the one below. Once I digest I'll get back with questions to either you or Andrew.

Should I report directly to Andrew with my preliminary findings/questions and copy Loren and yourself? I can remove you and Loren off the emails until I have a more formal assessment per our discussion this afternoon. I'll target a preliminary assessment to start and "perfect the narrative" by late next week.

What is the SSID and OU for this? I'll ask Anabel to load in my PPL.

Best,

Keith
