Julie,

Thanks for clarifying. I was caught a bit off guard, but am up to speed now.

Best,
Jon

Hi Jon,

We're also working on a petition regarding treated seeds (specifically as it pertains to the treated article exemption). The petition is from several groups represented by the Center for Food Safety. This is the petition that Linda is involved in.

INTERNAL CONFIDENTIAL

Hi all,

First of all, I was not aware that Linda was involved in the petition response. I'm actually a bit confused about what is going here. Are we planning a meeting with the NRDC? In response to what?

I'm not sure of the scope of the update that you need on the NRDC petition response, but here goes. This is obviously not intended for distribution outside of EPA.

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Let me know if you have other questions.

Best,
Jon

Thanks. Yeah, that's what I was thinking of. I'll pull something together from there.

For Jon, it looks like Linda is helping work on the petition update portion, so I'll wait to hear from here before I send anything up.

Ricardo,

Are you referring to a particular treated seed mitigation or all of the mitigation? If you mean all of them, the best document would likely be the Draft PRD Neonic Mitigation Outline from November 2019, which is available in the PRD channel for the Neonic team (see link).

As for the NRDC petition, Jon Williams is working on that response (cc'd here).

Please let me know if you are looking for something specifically,

Matt

Matt,

I'll see if I can pull up our slide from the PID briefings that discuss the mitigation we proposed for treated seed. If you have anything handy that could work, please send it my way.

Nicole or Julie,

Is your branch working on the NRDC petition? Sorry, I lost track of whether it was in Nicole's or Julie's. Either way, could one of you let me know if you have a bullet or two to update on the status of the response? If you don't that's fine too.

Hi Ricardo,

Would you please take a look at the below on treated seeds and neonics – can the neonics team pull some info together for Ed by some time tomorrow?

Many thanks,
Dana

See email chain below. Appears a question regarding neonics and treated seeds. Looks like there is a meeting on March 5th.

Ed,

Aaron Colangelo, who is the attorney for the TCVP petition denial challenge, alerted our DOJ attorney that he'd be attending a meeting with OPP on Mar. 5, but that TCVP wasn't on the agenda. Upon further inquiry, Aaron sent the agenda below to explain what topics were to be discussed. Is this a

Here's Aaron's response to the follow up inquiry:

Below are the items on the agenda in the calendar invite I received.

- Neonicotinoids – where do we go from here
- Registration review timing. Is EPA on track for the 2022 deadline?
    - What about the remaining OPs?
- Ethylene Oxide
- Streptomycin and Aldicarb

The calendar invite was sent to the following people, although I can't be sure that this is a complete list of expected attendees. Jen Sass and Dan Raichel are at NRDC; I assume all of the others are EPA staff.
