I've merged Dan's comments in with yours, I think this is the final version. The pdf version has my signature, and ready for yours but word version included in case you have final edits. You can send after you sign or send back to me to send out. Great job everyone – I think that's the fastest letter we've ever done!

Carolyn; eva – letter modification incorporating ADEQ points. Note the pdf figure has a slight well placement location modification.

Steve, Bo – Figure 3 was a nice touch and illustrative, but was omitted to save space and to prevent any final run format issues (the dotted circle was not linked and kept moving – my bad). Thanks for your input.

I tried to keep everybody's emphasis and intent.
