Subject: RE: Expera Thilmany active permits and air emissions inventory

Thanks Michelle,
Sasha Letuchy is the engineer handling the 114 now. Hopefully, this got cleared up with the company.

Subject: Expera Thilmany active permits and air emissions inventory

Hi Sarah,
Mark Nessman from Expera still wasn't clear on whether you would be getting the current active permits as well as historical air emissions inventories on your own.....I am sending you the link to the external website for Expera that has all the current permits as well as the AEI dating back to 1995. You can select and download any of those documents.....I will let him know that I sent you this link and that he does not have to provide those documents. Please forward this info along to the engineer assigned to the 114 request. Thanks much!
Michelle
