You have a super Thanksgiving as well Craig. Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) so I guess it was E& mE News birthday present. Yep nothing there other than they keep reminding the world that I am not an office guy and believe I should be in the field with my stakeholders, my superfund sites, my 148 tribes, the border and my Pacific Islanders. Not to mention my 4 states. And I have to say I absolutely loved the picture they used.

Hope to see you both soon.

E&E articles are not usually that long. It may have been the longest, least newsworthy article I have ever read.
Nothing there and the article says so. I loved the EPA spokesperson quote including 8 time zones.
Only the headline is even modestly scintillating.
You must be a pretty boring guy if this is all they could dust up. Crazy world out there.
I look forward to seeing you soon.
Have a great Thanksgiving Holiday wherever you are...

Hi Mike
Great to hear from you and really wonderful to hear about your recent nuptials!
I would love to catch up and think of you often in light of all the state/federal kerfuffles going on.
Shannon and I need a weekend! We will plan to see you in the next couple of months in Santa Barbara and look forward to meeting your bride then.
All is well with us, we are doing some forced construction on the house since our Pella windows leaked last winter during the wind driven rains. While they are covering all the costs, construction is a pain, especially when you are repairing only, not improving.
Otherwise, work is great; been a busy, fun year with interesting issues. I am sure it is the same for you ... on steroids!
See you soon

Craig,

Hope all is well. I just thought I would drop you a line to see how everything is going. Lets get together one of these days and get caught up. As always, if you and your wife are in the SB area on a weekend, let me know. I look forward to introducing you both to the new Mrs. Stoker. Got married in June.

Happy New Year Mike
Hope you enjoyed a relatively quiet and peaceful Holiday.
Shannon and I stayed in Southern California and had family but mostly pretty quiet, which was nice.
I wanted to follow up and see if you have any dates yet for the trip to Navajo.
I will be down there at the end of the month and will also try to get to Window Rock.
Either way, let me know if I could schedule an hour or so with you either in LA, SB or in HQ in the next couple of weeks. Happy to chat with your scheduler and see if I can make something work.
No particular agenda. Just a catch up to see how you're getting on and provide my perspective on what is happening in the coming year.
Best wishes for a happy, healthy and prosperous 2019!

Hi Mike
Long time no talk. Hope you are doing well and still enjoying your gig.
Regarding the Navajo Nation election, the vice president Jonathan Nez won the election for president. He is a good guy.
Are you still scheduled to visit?

Craig,
Hope all is well and hope your having a super Labor Day Weekend. Thanks for giving me the update. I have a visit to the Navajo Nation scheduled for April. However we are hosting a Tribal Conference at HQ in San Francisco in October and several the Tribal leaders will be attending. Stay in touch and always feel free to email or call if you need my assistance in anyway.

Hi Mike:
Hope you are doing well and still enjoying the ride. The Navajo Nation results for the primary election are attached. The vice president, Jonathan Nez handily led the 18 candidate field and will head into the November election against Joe Shirley who was president for two terms back in 2003-2011. The incumbent president Russell Begaye came in fifth, even worse than I thought he would fare.
Let me know if you want to chat and maybe we can catch up next time you are in either LA/SB/SF for more than a day or two.
Have a great Labor Day Weekend!
