Hi Mike,
Not sure SC has seen this proposed topic list from Mike Carroll. I think we should use it as a guide for our prep call today. There are a couple of topics we did not touch on during our call last week.

Hi Mike,

Do you have an agenda with more specifics to share with us? That is, are there specific issues you want to discuss under the topics you shared with us previously?

==========
Here is what you had shared previously.

New Source Review (NSR) and Anti-Backsliding Concerns

- NSR Applicability Trigger
- Methodology for Calculating Required Offsets
- Use of SCAQMD Internal Bank to Satisfy NSR Offsets
- NSR Holding Requirement
- Requirement to Demonstrate that Emissions Remain Below Final Cap
- Viability of Retaining RECLAIM NSR

New BARCT Standards

- Multi-Pollutant BARCT Standards
- Availability of Alternative Emission Control Plans

Thanks Mike

Hi Mike,

We have been coordinating with SCAQMD on scheduling. Please look soon for an email from Laura Hall, our Administrative Assistant who will help with scheduling a time that will work for all.

I will give you a call tomorrow to get a better sense of your interests and a possible agenda. What time might be good for a short conversation?

Amy

Hi Mike,

Thank you for circling back. Elizabeth is on leave through Friday, so I'm providing an interim response. We will get back to you early next week. As I believe Elizabeth mentioned, we will invite SCAQMD staff to participate in this discussion.

Regards,
Amy

Subject: Meeting to Discuss RECLAIM Transition Issues

Hello all.

Just circling back here on our previous communications about a meeting to discuss certain issues related to the transition away from the SCAQMD RECLAIM program. Below is a tentative list of the issues that we would like to discuss so that we can better understand EPA's positions. We would also welcome discussion of any other issues of concern to EPA. If possible, we would like to identify a mutually acceptable date during the week of September 9 (preferably early in that week). Please let me know if there is a date within that period that would work for you.

Regards, Mike
