Thanks Catherine. Tuesday will be just fine. It's been busy, but I think the pieces are finally coming together. Still have a way to go!

Subject: Our Report - coming soon - details

Hi Jeff, and all others concerned,
Alan and I did finish, but are working to track down last references, put in table of contents, and make sure all sections are numbered correctly. We plan to send it all to you tomorrow morning. If there is an emergency reason that you need the copy as is tonight, let us know. We could send it but would prefer to have it in final shape with all refs, sections numbered correctly, etc. Both of us are in class and meetings all day. (b) (5) [redacted] Heather Dean's edits were a wonderful help, and she has an amazing range of knowledge and insight.
We appreciate the chance to work with the EPA on this important project,

Catherine Knott
and (by proxy) Alan Boraas
