Looks like we have the new epi papers that might be of interest (see links below). Glinda, Amanda, don't suppose you have any time to skim them?

I skimmed Jemec 1994 and noticed this quote:
"This study suggests that iatrogenic exposure to tars does not increase the risk of internal cancer in the group of patients suffering from atopic dermatitis. The conclusion cannot be as firm with regard to non-melanoma skin cancers as reporting to the Cancer Registry has become effective only recently for this group of tumours."

Hi Kathleen –
Sorry to hear that you had trouble submitting these PDF requests thru the NCEA HERO interface.
We did deploy some new code on the NCEA HERO application Monday afternoon – so you may have caught a "transition" period on the interface. Hopefully everything is working fine for you now.
Let us know if not!

If that happens in the future, just email them to HERO (Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) like you did on Monday evening.

We started processing your PDF requests yesterday (Tuesday), from your request on Monday evening.
None of these 4 were part of the EPA Library subscriptions – so NCEA HERO has to buy them.

I've sent all 4 on to our NCEA-HERO document delivery service contractor today, and they should be attached sometime in the next 2 or 3 days (assuming they are easy to find and buy – the NCEA HERO document delivery contractor is very good, and these do not look very obscure, so they shouldn't have any problems.).

There was another one (see below Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP) that you also requested … I just ordered it too.
Should also be here in 2 or 3 days.

In the meantime, I've provided the HERO links below – and while the PDFs will not be available until our HERO Team attaches them, the abstracts are available in HERO (see links below).

Let me know as you have questions.
Best regards,
-Connie

Hi, can you estimate when these four references will be available? EPA's SAB has asked for them and I'm not sure what to tell them since the PDFs are pending.

Hi Kathleen,

We've completed the 2 Add Reference request below and references can be viewed here: https://hero.epa.gov/index.cfm/search/results

Any PDFs that were not automatically retrieved by HERO are on order and display a "Pending" status.

Thanks,
TeamHERO

Hi, could you add this paper to the benzo[a]pyrene HERO file and tag it "considered"? I would also like to retrieve the PDF for this study.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

[I would have submitted this to the HERO submission form online, but that page doesn't appear to work for any of my browsers.]

Thanks!

Kathleen

Hi, I would like to request these citations be entered into the benzo[a]pyrene HERO file and be tagged as "considered". I would also like to request the retrieval of the PDFs for these.

Please let you know if you have any questions. Sooner the better for these articles.
Thanks!

Kathleen
