Scott has it now, as I was able to download it into his "drop-box." Let me know if he can get it to you.

Good morning, attached is a draft of the power points I'll be using Wed. They're a bit cryptic without the presentation….

There are also a lot of them, but many I plan on showing only for a couple of seconds to stress a point (e.g., yes we did consider/screen a lot of soil options). I figure it will take me 30 minutes for the talk.

Please let me know if there are any issues or points you think I should add/stress.

Thanks, jon
