Good afternoon,

The White House Office of Presidential Personnel will be working to accommodate your visits to the White House this holiday season. Holiday Open Houses are similar to general East Wing and Residence tours, but usually take place in the afternoon or evening. Additionally, the total amount of individuals for each open house is half the size of a general tour, allowing for a higher quality experience. Political appointees at EPA are invited to attend a White House Open House on November 29, 2018 at 2:30 p.m. We are unable to accommodate any plus one attendees at this time.

If interested in attending the White House Open House on November 29th at 2:30 p.m., please respond to this email no later than Friday, the 16th at 6:00 p.m. ET and we will follow-up with the registration link. If you are unable to make the time designated for your department, you will be placed on a waitlist for another open house time slot that will be determined pending availability.

If you have any other questions, please contact us at Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)

Thank you,

Office of Presidential Personnel
