Sarah, forgot to ask about financial assurance. It looks like Tierra will need to request that EPA provide an extension. How should we proceed? Thanks, Carol

Carol,

We had an internal meeting today to prepare for our meeting with you on February 27, and concluded that, in fact, EPA is not yet in a position to discuss anything concrete with you and your clients, so once again we must postpone. We are pursuing several concepts but we need to get further before arranging another meeting.

Again, I apologize for any inconvenience.

Regards,

-Sarah

Sarah, that week is already tight on everyone's schedule. Could we meet the following week, February 26 or 27? Thank you. Carol

Carol,

As I mentioned in my voicemail message yesterday -- and I think Ray Basso discussed with Dave Rabbe -- we've experienced some delays at EPA and we are not ready to meet with Occidental/Tierra next week. We do apologize for the inconvenience to you and your clients, but we will need more time to prepare for a productive meeting.

I am working on figuring out some alternative meeting dates in February at the moment, most likely in the third week, so if that is totally out of the question for you, please let me know. Otherwise, I will be in touch with you soon with some additional information.

Regards,

-Sarah

Carol,

Great. January 22 is still available. What time would work best for you?
