Dear Mr. Buckovetz:

This letter acknowledges and responds to your August 8, 2020, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request seeking "all email messages dated on or after 1 May 2014 and through 3 Feb 2015 that have the email address christopher.b.nash@usmc.mil on the "From:", "To:", "Cc:", or "Bcc:" line AND contain the words "coin" or "coins" on the subject line or within the body of the message." Your request was received and perfected by this office on August 27, 2020 and controlled under file number DON-USMC-2020-011248.

Under procedures established in Secretary of the Navy Instruction (SECNAVINST) 5720.42G, a search for the responsive records was conducted. No agency records responsive to your request were located.

In view of the above, you may consider this to be an adverse determination that may be appealed. If you have an account created in FOIAonline website, you may submit an appeal directly within the web-based system. To do this, you would log in to your account, retrieve your original request, and then click on the "Create Appeal" tab in the left-hand column. The basic information from your request will be duplicated for you, and then you can type in the basis of your appeal. If you prefer to use regular mail, you may submit an appeal to the Judge Advocate General of the Navy (Code 14), 1322 Patterson Avenue SE, Suite 3000, Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066. Your appeal, if any, must be postmarked within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter and should include a copy of your initial request, a copy of this letter, and a statement indicating why you believe your appeal should be granted. I recommend that your appeal and its envelope both bear the notation, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal".

You also have the right to seek assistance and/or dispute resolution services from the Marine Corps FOIA Public Liaison, Ms. Sally Hughes, at hqmcfoia@usmc.mil or (703) 614-4008, and/or the Department of the Navy FOIA Public Liaison, Mr. Christopher Julka, at christopher.a.julka@navy.mil or (703) 697-0031. You may also contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) for assistance and/or dispute resolution at ogis@nara.gov or 1-877-684-6448. For more information online about services provided by OGIS, please visit their website at https://ogis.archives.gov.

There are no fees for this request. I am the official responsible for this determination.

Should you have questions about this action, please contact Ms. Cinthia Camacho via email cinthia.camacho@usmc.mil. Please reference the file number.

Sincerely,

M. N. MCCONNELL
Lieutenant Colonel
U.S. Marine Corps
Staff Judge Advocate

To: Cinthia Camacho, FOIA Coordinator, Marine Corps Recruit Depot/Western Recruiting Region, San Diego, CA

Subj: FOIA Request DON-USMC-2020-011248

I, Karl Rosenbaum, am a Contractor with duties of supporting the Microsoft Exchange infrastructure, for the United States Marine Corps Marine Corps Cyberspace Operations Group (MCCOG) and I have performed these duties for 3 years. I have also worked for the Marine Corps and elsewhere in the Federal Government as a contractor in related duties for over 20 years.

At the request of the Marine Corp Recruit Depot in San Diego CA, and the direction of my superiors, I conducted a search on the accounts assigned to Christopher B. Nash (christiopher.b.nash@usmc.mil).

The query request consisted of a date range between 01 May 2014 and 03 February 2015, and the key terms of "Coin" or "Coins" within the Subject or Body of the message.

I was unable to find a mailbox, Active Directory account, or any other record for that user or mailbox.

I declare that the above is true to the best of my knowledge and belief and under penalty of perjury.

Any inquiry or requests for additional information must be received through Ms. Josephine Warner CIV (Josephine.Warner@usmc.mil) with MCCOG Incident Management for proper tracking and coordination.

Signed,

K. E. Rosenbaum
