Hi Joe,

Sorry I'm late in getting back to you. I was nose-down for a multiple day stretch.

I just took a quick look out on the Sharepoint at the WOS comments. It looks to me like we are all saying and commenting about similar things about the FEIS. NO surprise, but good to know.

We will have some good comments to send up the chain.

Thanks again for your time and review!

Betsy

All –

As discussed, the 404 staff would appreciate seeing your draft fish comments as they are ready, as they relate to one another and prefer not to be duplicative on fish issues. Please file your comments (Word) documents in a folder I have created for us on the Pebble Sharepoint site, and we will do the same:
