RE: Freedom of Information Act Request-06-FOI-00095-12

Ms. Lane:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, we request that we be furnished any and all documents in EPA's possession constituting or reflecting communications between C.C. "Bud" Grisham and C.C. "Curt" Grisham, Jr. and the EPA between the date of April 24, 2013 and today.

Below we have identified what we believe to be the entire scope of documentary items that we seek that are in EPA's possession. The documents requested include documents relating to any meetings with either C.C. "Bud" Grisham and/or C.C. "Curt" Grisham, Jr. and the EPA, as well as all documents in EPA's possession referencing either or both of the named Grishams.

The documentary scope of this request is further defined as follows:

- Any and all documentary items, exhibits, audio tapes, video tapes, letters, and e-mails which you have;

- "Document or "Documents - The term "document or "documents" shall mean writings of every type and from any source, including originals and non-identical copies thereof that are in your possession, custody or control, or known by you to exist this would include documents sent outside your organization to any source as well as documents intended for internal use;

- The term also includes communications not only in words, but in symbols, pictures, sound records, film, tapes, and information stored in, or accessible through, computer or other information storage or retrieval systems, the term
