Hi Ned,

Here you go:

"The attached comments provided by C6 Resources LLC were made during their technical review of the Draft UIC Permit with the understanding that there would be subsequent discussions to clarify intent and calibrate expectations with EPA. The comments are not meant to be representative of C6 Resources' final position on the permit requirements, but instead serve as a starting point for continued discussion. Any additional use or publication of these comments should be qualified with this statement as it clarifies the context of the statements contained therein."
