Hi David,

Thank you for letting me know. I don't know why this is because someone else can see the folders. I will try to fix this tomorrow, but it might not get fixed until Tuesday because I have a bunch of meetings tomorrow and things to get done.

Have a good night,
Jenny

Jenny,

FYI..

I have access to the Wolverine subfolder on the PFAS site labeled "limited access". There are no documents in this subfolder in my sharepoint view.

Hi Erin,

Thank you for checking. I will ask Kim to fix it.

Dave, you don't need to worry about checking this.

Hi Jenny,

I do have access to the Wolverine subfolder items.

Sorry, Erin. I was going to write Claudia and decide to write you instead.

Hi David and Claudia,

Do either of you have time to do me a favor? I am working with Kim Harris on the PFAS Sharepoint site and we are trying to verify that the permissions are set-up properly. Can you too access the site and see if you can open the Wolverine folder? Currently, only Kim and I should be able to see the documents in the folder. Please let me know if you can see them. After we get this verified, I think she is going to start adding other people that should have access

Thank you,
Jenny
