Melanie,

Attached is a draft version of a presentation that I put together ahead of tomorrow's meeting on the Back Forty project. I am planning on meeting with Jeff King, Don Tilton and Mike Nimmer in the morning and will likely cover the bulk of the technical details this presentation during that time. We may go over portions of it during the 12:30 meeting, but likely not in great detail. I have set up a GoToMeeting meeting so that we can share any presentation or figures that we discuss, but there will not be a presentation from the applicant. The agenda is also attached.
