EPA to Honor the Village of Glenview, Local Partners with the National Excellence in Site Reuse Award

GLENVIEW (MAY 22, 2019) — U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) will present the National Excellence in Site Reuse Award to the Village of Glenview to recognize the hard work, innovative thinking, and cooperation among federal agencies, the Illinois EPA, local partners, and developers who supported the transformation of the former Glenview Naval Air Station into a successful mixed-use community asset. EPA will present the award to the village after remarks from federal, state and local partners.

When: 2 p.m., May 29, 2019
Where: Navy Park at The Glen Town Center
2671 Navy Boulevard
Glenview, Ill.

Reporters are asked to arrive at 1:30 p.m. to set up. The award ceremony will begin promptly at 2 p.m. Parking is available in a garage off Patriot Boulevard. In case of inclement weather, the ceremony will be held at The Book Market adjacent to Navy Park.
