Tonopah Farm – This picture is of the Manure Drying Barns with curtains to ensure that the manure is dryed by the exaust air from the layer barns reducing emissions and smell associated with wet manure.

All 10 houses have the manure shed screens added to reduce dander from escaping the drying barn when manure belts are running.

Close Up of inside that manure drying barn