See clean and track changes version attached. I provided some clarification in the comment bubbles in the track changes version, so that might be helpful. I had to cut down the response under the beer/wine/ice cream question in order to address your comment, so hope that is ok.

Hi Khue,

We updated the human milk, vaccine, and Aaron Blair responses. For a couple, we had already done edits on the earlier version you sent out so we just cut and pasted to replace the older text rather than doing the individual edits within the response.

Thanks!

Monique
